

Quote of the Month

"The use of e-scooters has been permitted in Germany since mid-June. It remains to be seen how this new kind of mobility will affect the general road safety."

Jörg-Michael Satz President MOVING Road Safety Association International e. V.

Main offenses committed by E-scooter users:

- > Usage of mobile phones while riding
- > Illegal use of sidewalks and pedestrian zones
- > Prohibited carriage of third parties
- > Passing red signals
- > Drunk driving

151 OFFENSES

HAMBURG
17 priority checks
with 126 fee-paying misdemeanors
and 25 criminal charges

BERLIN
21 traffic accidents
with 4 heavily and 15 slightly injured of whom 18 E-scooter users identified as initiators 11 criminal investigations thereof 8 traffic offences as a result of drunk riding

32 OFFENSES

MUNICH
22 accidents with 12 injured of whom 3 got seriously injured
> 400 drunk users (above blood alcohol limit of 0.3 mg/ml)

>400 OFFENSES

Sources: Police Hamburg: 08/2019 · Police Berlin: on berlin.de, in press release Nr. 1746, 17.07.19 · Polizei München: on München.de, 08/2019

