

Quote of the month

„In these chart of the month we would like to show you how the number of theory examinations conducted for Class B has developed over the last three years. The first lockdown period in 2020 is clearly visible: The low point was in April with 241 theory tests conducted. The values after this lockdown for 2020 were significantly above the average of the previous year. By 08 December, almost 1.3 million theory tests for Class B had been taken in 2021.“
