

Quote of the month

„According to the annually published sales tax statistics, the number of driving and flying schools fell by 12.5% between 2015 and 2022. However, this is only part of the truth. While the number of driving and flying schools with an annual turnover (net) between €17,500* and €50,000 has decreased by 63%, the number of driving and flying schools with an annual turnover of more than €500,000 has increased by 165%. There is a clear trend towards larger units.“
