

Quote of the month

„The survey results show that both young people under the age of 25 and employed driving instructors consider the influence on young people and road safety to be the most important factors for becoming a driving instructor (78.03% and 66.15% respectively). While the younger respondents ranked the stable source of income (40.15%) in third place, the employed driving instructors rated the variety provided by new people and teaching methods (57.69%) as the third most important aspect.“

Jörg-Michael Satz, President MOVING International Road Safety Association e. V.

What are the advantages of becoming a driving instructor?

Ranking	Top 3 answers from learner drivers	≤ 25 J, N=135
1	Meaningful activity: influence on young people and contribution to road safety	78,03 %
2	Social interaction: working with young and very different people	44,70 %
3	Stable source of income: Attractive remuneration as an employee or self-employed person	40,15 %

Ranking	Top 3 answers from employed driving instructors	N=131
1	Meaningful activity: influence on young people and contribution to road safety	66,15 %
2	Social interaction: working with young and very different people	64,62 %
3	Varied work with challenges: New people, new personalities, new teaching methods	57,69 %

Source: Opinion survey "Kannst du fahrlehrern?", 2024
Survey among employed driving instructors, current opinion poll

