

Quote of the month

„On average, every driving school that offers A1 and A2 motorbike licences has 6.1 motorbikes in its fleet - a slight decrease compared to 6.4 in the previous year.

The geographical environment has a noticeable influence on fleet size: in large cities, the average is 6.7 motorbikes, while in small and medium-sized towns it is only 5.9. In rural areas, driving schools have an average of 6.2 motorbikes.“
